

Youth &
Early Care

Workforce Bonu$

Utah Office of Child Care

Individual Staff Application Checklist

- Confirm your employer is an eligible program (Help)
- Locate your program/facility's ID #. (Help)
- Locate your Child Care Licensing Background Check Number. (Help)
- If you do not have an individual account within the Care About Childcare website, register at cac.utah.gov. (Help)
- If you previously had a Care About Childcare Account on the old website, associate it with your UtahID. (Help)
- Ensure your current Child Care Licensing Background Check Number (Help), program and role(s) are listed on your profile's "Contact Information" page.
- Know your Social Security number.
- Know how to access your pay stubs, or have your employer complete an Employment Verification Form.

occworkforcebonus@utah.gov

The Youth and Early Care Workforce Bonus recognizes the critical role of the child care community in supporting working families throughout the pandemic. Eligible individuals can apply for a significant one-time bonus as a "thank you" for their dedication to serving Utah's children and youth.