

Overview of Services to Employers

The Department of Workforce Services is committed to helping Utah businesses by offering a wide range of tools and resources to assist with your business needs.

BUSINESS SOLUTIONS

- 1. jobs.utah.gov: Our easy-to-use online job connection system provides information on:
 - Posting job openings
 - Reviewing resumes for qualified applicants
 - Current economic and labor market information
 - Unemployment tools and resources (file your tax and New Hire Reports, etc.)
 - Business laws and federal regulations
 - Hiring incentives
- 2. Workforce Development Specialists: Full-time staff equipped to provide you with information on:
 - Occupational wages to ensure your company stays competitive
 - Industry-specific labor market information
 - Educational and community partners responsible for preparing future employees
- 3. Facilities: Our local employment centers are available for your recruitment and interviewing needs. Speak to one of our Workforce Development Specialists to find out how Workforce Services can help you.

ON-THE-JOB TRAINING PROGRAM

The On-the-Job Training Program offers reimbursement to employers who provide customized job training for participants. Employers can be in the public, private or nonprofit sector.

- Employers will be reimbursed for up to 50 percent of the participant wages during training
- An on-the-job contract must be negotiated prior to the hire
- Training contracts will not exceed six months

EMPLOYMENT INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Employment internship opportunities are intended to assist participating employers with temporary work needs, while giving trainees hands-on experience in a career setting. Workforce Services administers employment internship opportunities in partnership with employers. We will develop a training outline based on your needs and the needs of the trainee. As an employer, you will have the opportunity to help the trainee explore career options or upgrade his/her skills or according to the agreed upon training outline.
